About the Program:

Water leaders have the important role of providing reliable water supplies and protecting our precious environment in the Water/Wastewater sector. In southern California, we are fortunate to have stellar AAPI professionals who are leaders within the Water/Wastewater sector. Join us as they share their perspectives from an AAPI lens and discuss their pathway to becoming a leader in the industry. Everyone can benefit from their stories, insight, and advice for the next generation of leaders and managers.
